Michigan Ave. Slated For Paving This Spring

Five blocks of Michigan Avenue, from Park to Ottawa, will be paved this year as part of the City of Grayling's annual street program.

The Michigan Avenue blocks were added to the city's main project of improving 11 blocks on the north side and an alternative project of improving one block each of Plum and Ionia. Paving Michigan Avenue will cost an estimated $51,000 and the city was able to include it in this year's project because of low bids.

Grayling City Manager Jerry Morford said bids for the main projects and alternatives came in about 20 percent lower because of reduced asphalt prices. The city was estimating asphalt prices at $30 a ton but falling oil prices dropped the low bid to about $24 a ton.

The total of the three projects approved by the city council at their meeting Monday night is estimated to be $230,000.

The city council voted to delete two alternatives from this year's program. By adding the Michigan Avenue project, there wasn't enough money this year to improve the end of Ingham Street and pave the city park parking lot.

Michigan Avenue became a priority for the city this spring when potholes started winning the war along the five block stretch. The section from Park to Ottawa is the only part of Michigan Avenue that has not been paved in more than 15 years, and Morford said it is not surprising it started breaking up this spring.

The city's street program this year could be started as early as the first part of May and possibly could be completed by the middle of June. A pre-construction meeting is set for April 22 with Searles Construction, of St. Johns, the low bidder for the project, Richards & Associates, Inc., of Traverse City, consulting engineers for the city, and city officials. Searles Construction has worked on Grayling projects before, including the south side street improvement.

The city will try to arrange a construction schedule that limits work on Michigan Avenue to the shortest time possible. Michigan Avenue is a heavily-traveled through street. The other streets in the project are in residential areas and have less traffic.

Land Bill Will Net Extra $28,000 a Year For Crawford County

A bill introduced by State Senator Connie Binsfeld (R-Maple City) to increase payments to Crawford, Kalkaska and Otsego Counties in lieu of taxes on state-owned, National Guard properties in these counties, passed the Senate Finance Committee April 9, and will now move to the full Senate for a vote.

The bill, SB 607, amends a 1913 statute providing for 10 cents per acre to be paid to the counties in lieu of state taxes. This legislation increases the sum to one dollar per acre. There are 45,300 acres involved with approximately 30,000 in Crawford, 14,300 in Kalkaska and 1,285 in Otsego Counties.

The bill would bring in about $28,000 a year for Crawford County, with the Crawford AuSable School District receiving about 48 percent, the county 42 percent, the townships 7 percent, and C.O.O.R. 2-3 percent.

The bill is the result of some detective work by Crawford County Commissioner Garland "Bud" Joyce. While looking for a way to increase payment on military lands, he read the original 1913 bill which authorized payment of "an amount equal to ten cents an acre."

When Joyce testified before the Senate Finance Committee on April 9, he said, given the increase in the cost of living over the last 73 years, and the increase in taxes, an amount equal to ten cents in 1913 is certainly worth $1 in 1986.

After Joyce's five-minute presentation, the Senate Finance Committee unanimously passed the bill. No other witnesses were called. The only question from the Committee was a joking remark, "What took you so long to get here, 73 years?" Joyce quipped "I guess not too many people read the fourth page on the bottom of old 1913 bills."

Binsfeld was confident the bill would pass both houses before the legislature recessed for summer. "In recent months we have seen the per acre fees paid to local units of government for swamp land and commercial forest raised, it is only fair to increase these fees as well and bring them more in line with today's standards," Binsfeld said.

SENATE FINANCE TESTIMONY — Crawford County Commissioner Bud Joyce testified before the Senate Finance Committee for a bill introduced by Senator Binsfeld to increase tax payments on military lands. Shown are (l to r) Lt. Col. Edgar E. Wilkins, Jr., Army National Guard Engineer; Bud Joyce, Crawford County Commissioner; State Senator Connie Binsfeld; and Lt. Col. Michael J. Rice, Military Affairs.

County Says Yes To Medical Control Bd., No To Upgrading Crawford Ambulance Corps

Crawford County Commissioners agreed to participate in a proposed Medical Control Authority Board, but voted against offering limited advanced life support ambulance service.

Mercy Hospital asked commissioners to support both proposals.

The Medical Control Authority Board will adopt and monitor minimum medical care standards for transporting and emergency care services. The Michigan Dept. of Public Health has a goal of establishing a medical control authority board for every county by the end of this year. Hospitals within a region have the authority to establish the boards and Mercy Hospital is proposing to start an authority board to cover both Crawford and Roscommon counties. Mercy Hospital has the power to appoint members to the board and they asked the county to recommend a member of the county commissioners to serve. Commissioner Larry Mattis was recommended by the county for appointment to the new board.

The physician in charge of the emergency room at Mercy Hospital has to be a member of the authority board and other members may be hospital emergency room personnel, pharmacists, emergency services personnel, county representatives, and others involved in pre-hospital care.

Crawford County Commissioners did not support a proposal from Mercy Hospital to upgrade the county ambulance service to limited advanced life support.

The county currently offers basic care ambulance service. Limited advanced life support - the next step up - allows the ambulance personnel to start I.V.'s (intravenous therapy) and perform airway management procedures such as an endotracheal intubation or esophageal obturator airway. With limited advanced life support, there is also a communication line provided between the ambulance personnel and a hospital-based doctor.

Commissioner Bill Ruddy said the main reason the county did not support the proposal was that most of the Emergency Medical Technicians (EMTs) of the ambulance corps were not in favor at this time of taking the extra 108 hours of training necessary to provide the limited advanced life support service.

Tony Doremire, director of the Crawford County Ambulance Corps, estimated the county would need at least five or six EMTs to take the training and advance to EMT Specialist in order to offer the limited advanced life support.

Ruddy said the county also did not go along with the increased ambulance service proposal because of differences in estimates by Mercy Hospital and the ambulance corps.

Mercy Hospital estimates 206 patients out of a total of 471 transported by the county ambulance corps in 1985 would have benefited from limited advanced life support. The ambulance corps estimates only about 20 patients in 1985 would have benefited from the limited advanced life support service.

The estimated cost for the training of the EMTs also differs. Mercy Hospital, which says it will provide the clinic for the training and work with the county to fund the training for the first group, estimates a cost of $350 a person. The ambulance corps estimates it will cost less than half of that a person.

Both Mercy Hospital and the ambulance corps do agree it will cost about $6,000 to install portable radios and other equipment in the county's two ambulances needed to provide limited advanced life support service.

Doremire said he was not in favor of adding the limited advanced life support service at this time.

"Let's set up the Medical Control Authority Board, set up minimum standards, and make sure our basic skills are at the 100 percent level. When we're as good as we possibly can be at the basic level, then we can move on. If we don't insure our basic skills are as good as they can be, it will hurt more than help to move on right now."

Ruddy said the Crawford County Ambulance Corps will still provide the same excellent basic service to the entire county. In Frederic Township, Maple Forest Township, and the northern half of Lovells (north of Town Line Road), the Frederic ambulance crew provides primary coverage and the county provides back-up coverage. The county ambulance corps also have an agreement with Kalkaska County to provide coverage for the east part of Kalkaska County (along Goose Creek and Riverview Road) in the 348 telephone exchange area.

Currently 10 EMTs and 3 licensed attendants work in the county ambulance corps to provide emergency service 24 hours a day seven days a week. The county corps also provide transfer service for any county resident if a vehicle and crew is available.

"We can't jeopardize our emergency service to provide transfers," Doremire said.

Always having an ambulance crew available for emergency runs can be difficult. Take last Thursday, April 10th, for example. A county ambulance was dispatched to an auto accident caused from ice forming on the road. As soon as the ambulance returned, two ambulance personnel, who are also volunteer firemen, had to leave for a fire call. Another ambulance call for an accident came in and extra ambulance personnel had to be called. After the second accident...

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE — Crawford County Probate Judge Emil Kraus found himself in handcuffs last Friday as co-workers and friends pulled a birthday joke on him. Along with a cake and gifts, Judge Kraus was given a phony warrant for his arrest. The warrant, read by Grayling City Police Officer Karl Schreiner, said the Judge was being arrested because he was so hard to buy a gift for. For the man who has everything, co-workers and friends decided to give him something he didn't have — a jail sentence. Needless to say, the warrant didn't hold up and the Judge was released a minute later to enjoy birthday cake at his county courthouse office.

From Our Corner...

Just a touch of the abuse and ridicule that a country editor has to put up with...that is, in Grayling...

Bill Joseph, Grayling's elder statesman arrived home from a month in Florida, and I don't think he even unpacked before he was pounding on the door wanting an audience with the stupid editor of the Avalanche...

We heard him out in the front office, and before I could say let the tiger in, he was in my office...the first thing he said, I have just got through reading the last four issues of the Avalanche, and I haven't seen one word of retraction from your March 13th issue of how wrong you were...

Now, I hadn't had my second cup of coffee before the confrontation...so, I said, what did I write about that has you so upset...

His answer to that was I should read Erma Bombeck's column that morning pertaining to Alzheimer's disease...I will have to admit I do have problems with Alz sometimes and I guess this was one of them...

Next, he said why don't you get your information right before you go out and write something that is not the truth...

Wild Willie said, are you trying to make your brother a martyr standing in the middle of the floor and controlling the tempo of the game against an undefeated Green Wave...Grayling WAS NOT undefeated...

My argument was...it was in 1935 that Gaylord beat Grayling in the tournament after being ran over in the two season games...

Taking Bill's advice on Alz, I called Don Smock who was a member of the team...Don told me I was wrong about 1935, they got beat by Kalkaska for their only season defeat...it was 1936, Don said, they went undefeated...but the end results was the same, Gaylord beat them again in the district tournaments...this time 20-19...

We dislike bringing back sad memories but, Bill demanded it...so, we bow to the sage of Michigan Avenue but, only consider ourselves half wrong, by a year...

Another encounter we had last week was from the hobo, transplanted from the Bay area and at this time head haunchau of the Rotary Club...

Irvin, was more discreet, if you want to call it that...he waited until I was having lunch last Wednesday at the hotel...he didn't disrupt my day...all he did was disrupt my meal...

While I was eating my soup, Irvin said, why didn't you write about the Minstrel Show...I told him I did exactly what he wanted me to do...give the club free publicity in my column, and try to get some people to go to the show...

I don't mean befo...I mean afta the show...

With that introduction that lasted probably 15 minutes, my soup was cold, and my hamburger was starting to get cold...

Next thing he said was, were you mad about something...my answer was no...I thought I had put myself out on a limb just recommending the show...and I didn't want too many people to remember how I used my influence to get something in the corner...

Really anyone who will stand around and nibble on Meow Mix does have to be pacified...

Truthfully we arrived at the designated hour for doors opening and the place was packed...we were in the bleachers so to speak and didn't catch everything that was said...we did hear my name a couple of times, and it seemed they wanted to be sure everyone heard it...

The trials and tribulations of the country editor...damned if you do...damned if you don't...

Next week's space will be taken up by Jim Fitzgerald, columnist for the Detroit Free Press...we talked to Jim on the Island last summer at the MPA summer convention, and he gave me approval to swipe a column if I needed it...we're heading south and west and we need it...

With that, goodnight T.J., Stefany and Amber, and to all we'll see you in a bit...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

REALITY OF HELL

Theologian Robert Short lecturing to college students across America, says Christianity has erred by teaching a literal hell for sinners after death. He says, "The historical root of turning away from Christ believe it or not, lies in teaching of eternal torment." Short blames the rise of atheism on the church's emphasis on hell. The Bible makes it abundantly clear that there are but two choices for the eternal abode of the soul - heaven or hell. All other choices are merely man made theories to discredit divine revelation.

One cannot believe in the reality of our Lord Jesus Christ as God, and deny His teaching on Hell. Listen to the words of Jesus:

"And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom. And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham answered, and said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence."

(Luke 16:23-26). No purgatory or limbo - just the fires of hell. Hell is hell!

It is no wonder gentle Jesus warns us to fear God's judgment. "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." (Matt. 10:28). Jesus described hell as a place of fire and suffering. "And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth." (Matt. 13:42). Hell is not a place to enjoy with your friends.

Jesus reminds us there are two choices. "And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal." (Matt. 25:46). Jesus told us that many are making the wrong choice. "Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat." (Matt. 7:13). Your wrong choice will bring these dreaded words of Jesus, "...Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire..." (Matt. 25:41). "...Fear Him..." (Luke 12:5). "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." (John 8:32). To deny the reality of hell is to call Jesus Christ a liar, and destroy your own soul forever.

DR. LIVINGSTON I PRESUME — Paul Thomson, at left, was in Tucson, Arizona recently to attend the wedding of his nephew, and while there he, along with his brother and sister decided to climb this mountain that is the highest in the Tucson range. After numerous stops, the agile Thomson reached the top, only to find someone else there. To the surprise of both, it was Bernie Fowler also of Grayling. Now I have heard of many meetings of people when not expected but, not on a mountaintop in Arizona.

Bits by Fay

My strolling has only been up Maple and Chestnut Streets but if that is any indication there is plenty of clean-up going on around Grayling. This warm weather has brought out everyone, except a few, to clean up all that's left of winter's debris. Yards are looking great and a surprise group of crocus peeked out from under an ornamental stump in Jackie Lepsy's yard! Our daffodils are coming out for all that traffic and walkers coming across the back bridge. Bouquets to those who are improving the image of Grayling!

Travis James Ruhl Hatfield arrived at the home of Jim and Nancy Hatfield to join the family which includes 3 1/2 year-old Heather. Travis was born on October 22, 1985. Great grandfather is Harry Hoerl and great grandmother, Mrs. Becker of St. Helens. Grandparents are Jim and Joyce Kolka of Grayling and Jim and Marie Hatfield of Gainesville, Florida. Travis was baptised on Sunday, April 13, 1986 at the Mt. Hope Lutheran Church by Pastor Winter. Sponsors were Linda Canfield, sister of Jim, of Grayling, Corliss Higgins, a cousin of Nancy, from Howell, and Roger Morris, a brother-in-law, of Caro. Following church, a family dinner was held at the home of the grandparents, Joyce and Jim Kolka, with about 25 family members being present.

Jim and Judy Packard are happy over the arrival of another daughter, April Ann, who was born on April 2, 1986, at Osego Memorial Hospital, Gaylord. She weighed 5 pounds 5 ounces and was 18 1/2 inches long. Her five-year-old sister, Mary Elizabeth, is happy over her arrival, too.

Jim and Marie Wiltse have returned to their home at Lake Margrethe after spending two and one-half months in the south at Eusaula and Gulf Shores, Alabama.

Bill and Marian Joseph drove to Hilton Head, South Carolina, to visit Dr. and Mrs. B.E. Henig and then continued on to Florida to visit in Ft. Myers Beach, Weeki Wachee, and Tampa where they enjoyed a family reunion and a visit with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Huntington.

Jeff and Linda Regan and children enjoyed their Easter vacation, going first to Lexington, Michigan, to visit his parents, Dave and Irene Regan, and then continuing on to Toronto. They visited the museum, the CN Tower and other places of interest. On their return they visited her parents, Frank and Esther Christensen.

Mary Floriano Selected as Career Woman

Mary Ann Floriano of Grayling has been selected Young Career Woman for 1986 by the Grayling Business and Professional Women's Organization (BPW).

Ms. Floriano will participate in a District Young Career Woman competition on Saturday, April 19th in Grayling. Judging will be based on the candidates career achievements, a three minute speech and a personal interview.

Mary Ann will graduate with honors this spring from Kirtland Community College with an Associates Degree in Business.

While pursuing her degree with a full time class load, Mary Ann has juggled classes, full time work and raising her two pre-school age daughters.

If you would like more information about the Grayling BPW organization, contact president Elsie Jansen at 348-5572.

Potpourri; Patriotism Welcome

by Richard Millman

TIME ONCE MORE for one of our infrequent strolls, barefoot among the potpourri... and this time, carrying along a basket full of quotes...

PATRIOTISM IS always welcome, such as exemplified by the comment offered by Fuad Reveiz of Columbia (who is a place-kicker for the Miami Dolphins football team) as he became a United States citizen recently.

"The more I travel around, the more I realize how lucky I am to be in this country," said Reveiz. "A lot of people take for granted all the things we have. This tops it all off."

Too bad we have to be reminded by a newcomer, but he's right.

ALSO WELCOME is a sense of humor, especially in a politician. Down in Florida, a former state and federal legislator named Lou Frey is a Republican candidate for governor. Mr. Frey winced recently at something he didn't like in the introduction as he was presented to make a speech.

"That was a rare introduction," Frey said, beginning his remarks. "And if you look in your dictionaries, you'll see that rare means 'not well done.'"

So take that, clumsy introducer.

LINUS PAULING, who is a scientist by trade and has won a couple of Nobel Prizes, will offer his views on almost anything, from Vitamin C to world peace. Asked by USA Today if he would like to see a scientist as president of the United States, Mr. Pauling commented:

"I don't think that a scientist could be president... The basic principle of science is respect for the truth. Scientists have difficulty in compromising because of the feeling that the truth is the important goal."

And if Dr. Pauling is an example, they may have trouble with humility, too.

A delayed $403.8 million phased rate increase for Detroit Edison's Fermi 2 nuclear power plant was recently approved by a unanimous Public Service Commission, which also disallowed as imprudent expenditures $397 million of the plant's cost.

The increase and the disallowance for the first nuclear plant to be put into operation since 1979 were the largest ever authorized by the PSC.

Commissioners said the order was only $6 million less, and virtually identical to the one the PSC was prepared to issue September 9 when Governor Blanchard abruptly removed former Chairman Eric Schneidewind, who was serving an extended term, to prevent its approval at that time.

Following the vote, Commissioner Edwyna Anderson said, "This now brings to four the number of commissioners who believe this is an appropriate order."

The 15 percent rate increase will be effective only when the plant achieves a generating output of 90 percent of its 1,130 megawatt capacity for 100 continuous hours, and will be spread over five years to both ease rate shock and to reflect when the additional generating capacity will be needed.

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission has licensed the plant only for testing up to 5 percent of its capacity, and PSC staff said it was uncertain when operations would reach the level to qualify for the rate hike.

The first year increase will raise Edison revenues 2.99 percent, or about $77 million a year, and boost rates for average residential customers by $1.30.

Those customers will have increases of about $6.50 when all five increments of 20 percent in each of five years is implemented. The $403.8 million hike at the end of the five years compares to $556 million requested by Edison in 1983.

The rate structure was recommended by the Association of Businesses Advocating Tariff Equity, representing the state's largest industrial customers.

A commission statement said, "Adequate supplies of energy are vital to Michigan's economy. Yet rates that are too high can place Michigan businesses at a competitive disadvantage. The PSC feels confident that by adopting the major rate-making recommendations of our state's largest industries it has put in place a rate structure that will allow Michigan's economy to continue to grow."

Commission Chairman William Long said he was comfortable with the order, which is expected to be challenged in court.

The disallowances for 16 specific items represent 12.9 percent of the $3.075 billion cost of the project as listed in filings before the PSC, although continuing overruns have subsequently boosted the price to nearly $4 billion.

Long said in many cases they represent

THE SYNDICATED etiquette columnist billed as Miss Manners frequently has advice that reaches beyond the surface of her subject matter. In response to an inquiry recently from a female physician who was having trouble handling people who neglected to call her "Doctor," Miss Manners included the following advice as part of her counsel:

"The first rule of politeness is not to take offense when none was intended."

In a nutshell, that sums up a lot of things in the whole field of human relations.

MANY HAVE commented about the accumulated wealth of Philippine President Marcos. Appropriate is the view of columnist Larry King:

"On about $5,000 a year (the president's salary), Ferdinand Marcos did OK for himself. Shows you what good budgeting can do. The wife must have scrimped and saved all their adult lives."

They probably returned beer and pop bottles for their deposit value, too.

COLORFUL WRITING was used recently by David S. Broder, national political columnist, describing Democratic turmoil in Minnesota. Wrote Broder:

"With three acknowledgeably weak candidates now in the field, Republicans are scrambling to find someone who may be able to exploit the opportunity. And in Mondale's home state, the only state he carried in 1984, the Democrats are once again lining up in their favorite formation: The firing squad is in a circle."

FOR A POSITIVE view, listen to David Binsztek, a Polish immigrant from Brooklyn, who was robbed of $30,000 while visiting in Miami Beach recently:

"I know there's a lot of good people in the world... 95 percent are the good people," Mr. Binsztek said. "Sure, I'm disappointed. But the only place there's no crime is in the cemetery."

P.S.C.'s Fermi Order Includes Record Hike, Largest Disallowance

management decisions that were imprudent or provided no benefit to ratepayers.

The biggest disallowance for problems the commission said were related to "indecisive management and technical overkill" is $121.9 million for project delays.

Also included is $17.3 million for purchase of a foreign turbine generator; $27.4 million for modification of a radiation waste system costing as much as a new system; $96.8 million for excessive rework, repair and poor management of piping; $26.5 million for excessive redesign and rework of electrical systems; $15.7 million for overbuilt cooling towers; $17.9 million for costs related to a shutdown of the project from 1974 to 1977 and $11.2 million for refurbishing following the shutdown; and $47.8 million for imprudent management of the design of engineering.

Michigan Citizens Lobby Executive Director Joseph Tuchinsky said he was disappointed with the action, and said the organization is nearing completion of a petition drive on a proposal that would forbid rate hikes to cover costs of plants unless a determination is made the energy is needed.

He said the order requires ratepayers to pay $400 million per year for power we don't need for power we won't need in this decade, and would be obtainable for costs far lower than you are allowing today."

Saul Waldman, Edison's Vice President for Public Affairs, said the rate hike is "digestible. It keeps rates well within reason and competitive."

He said the company believes all the costs incurred in building the plant were justified, but said it is too early to say if the utility would challenge the PSC's disallowed costs.

He said the utility is at least a month away from the NRC approval to restart testing of the plant after it was shutdown for several problems, including diesel generators, security and NRC criticism of management.

In another energy related matter, a new study by the Rand Corporation predicts that Michigan's electricity consumption could increase by up to 3.9 percent per year for the next eight years, confirming other projections that additional electrical generating capacity will probably be needed by 1994.

The 16-month study was commissioned by the Bechtel Power Corporation, one of the world's largest designers and builders of power plants and major contractor for the stalled Consumers Power Midland plant.

William Henry, Bechtel vice-president and Ann Arbor office manager, said, "Michigan's rate of electricity consumption could increase between 1.0 percent and 3.9 percent per year."

The Public Service Commission staff has estimated a 1.2 percent average growth in overall demand through the year 2000.

To most people, Canada's High Arctic Islands are shrouded in mystery. Cinematographer John P. Wilson will take you from southern Newfoundland north through Labrador and into the High Arctic, to within some 400 miles of the North Pole. Your goal: to explore the landscape, wildlife and culture of these regions.

Your expedition begins with the rugged beauty of Cape St. Mary's on the southern coast of Newfoundland, followed by "hump-back whale-catching" in Placentia Bay. You'll visit the harp seal in his habitat off the northern coast of Newfoundland.

Then on to Labrador and the highest mountains on the eastern North American mainland. They are also the most remote, and with their almost constant cover of swirling mists, the most mysterious. They are called the Torngats. To the Inuit, who have lived and hunted in this starkly beautiful land for over 6000 years, they are the haunt of demons, spirits and gods. To your guide, explorer John Wilson, the Torngats are a magnet that draw you north through Labrador's main settlement, Goose Bay, on through the most northerly village on the continent's east coast, Nain, and yet further onward to a land reachable only by Inuit fishing boat or the occasional bush plane.

As you travel, you'll experience a coastline wilder and grander than that of any other part of the two Americas. Rock cliffs rise like the vertical walls of giant skyscrapers; deep fjords penetrate miles inland; giant icebergs float menacingly by. Puffins fly like wraiths through golden sunsets. Labrador is a strange and little known land whose northern regions possess a lonely, truly spectacular beauty. It is unquestionably, one of America's last really wild places.

Via air, you'll travel north along the eastern coastline of Canada to Pond Inlet, an Inuit community set in a beautiful Arctic landscape on Baffin Island. From Pond Inlet, experience the elusive narwhal, the long toothed whale of the cold Arctic waters. Wildlife sequences of the Arctic hare, long-tailed jaeger, walrus and muskox in their native environment highlight this film.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

by Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

We are close to probably the most exciting period in nature's year. With the snow gone the evidence of life's renewal is all around us. The most obvious thing is the greening of the grass in your lawn or along the roadsides, perhaps the tulips or crocus are starting to appear in the flower bed next to the house. Along the trail to the Virgin Pines the Trailing Arbutus is appearing from under the snow still lingering there despite the warm weather and the rain. The Arbutus is still a month from full bloom, but the preparations for that brief period are continuing as evidenced by the swelling buds.

The female Red Squirrels are quite plainly showing they have nursing young. The Red Squirrel we have visiting the bird feeder feeds without the leisure of a month ago and she will even accept a piece of bread and peanut butter from the hand before scampering off to her hidey-hole.

I heard a grouse drumming from somewhere in the timber back of the office the other day so I know that before long they will be on their nest. Others have told me of flocks of geese headed north and I have spooked pairs of mallards from near-by ponds and streams.

The trees on the hillside across the way from the office have suddenly changed color, but the little oak I can see hasn't lost its leaves yet. One day I will look and it will be bare. A close inspection will show buds ready to open into the new leaves of summer.

Spring is a precious, brief time that comes upon us with a misting of green, singing birds and softly warm days. Enjoy!

The program takes us back to the beginning to a country white men did not know, for an American Indian Dance. Then the audience travels forward in time to America's first birthday, for a Colonial Minuet.

The journey continues up to the present, with some surprising stops along the way.

Harbinger Dance Company's residency in this area is co-sponsored by the Kirtland Community College Performing Artist Series, the Crawford County Arts Council, and the Roscommon Chamber Music Society

Arts Council. A grant was also obtained from the Michigan Council for the Arts Touring Arts program.

Tickets for Saturday's performance of Harbinger Dance Company are available at all the local KCC ticket outlets through Thursday, and at the Auditorium Box Office before the show.

G.H.S. Players To Stage British Musical

On May 1, 2, and 3, 1986 Jeff Martinez will lead a cast of lively singers and dancers to the stage of the Joseph Stripe Auditorium in the annual production of a Broadway Musical by the Grayling High School Players. This year's production will be "Half a Sixpence," the musical comedy with a history of an eighteen months' success in London and a run of fifteen months in New York.

Based on a long-popular novel of H.G. Wells, "Kipps," about the adventures of a happy-go-lucky store clerk suddenly lifted into genteel society by an unexpected inheritance, "Half a Sixpence" is a skimming song-and-dance tale of a male Cinderella who finds that rising in the world can have its discomforts.

The story is set in the seaside town of Folkestone around 1905, when class barriers still meant a great deal in England. At the beginning, the penurious hero cuts a sixpence in two, gives half of the coin to a girl of his own social station (she is a parlormaid) and keeps the other half, as a token of his undying affection, presenting it to her to the accompaniment of the show's tuneless title song.

His affection wavers when, coming into money, he gets taken up by a family of social position but reduced fortune, and he is swept into an engagement with their snobbish daughter. He discovers that life on the refined level has its drawbacks. He is badgered by the efforts of his fiancée and prospective in-laws to improve his diction and about everything else.

His arrogant bride-to-be admonishes him, "Do try not to perspire when you dance." After many amusing episodes, he is glad to be deprived of his little fortune and his elegant fiancée, and to return to the cozier love of his lower class first sweetheart.

An even dozen rollicking songs and dance production numbers embroiler this story, which parallels the early life of novelist Wells, whose mother was a parlormaid and who spent two years as a "draper's apprentice" in just such a store as the emporium portrayed in the musical. Some of these bounding songs that have become established hits are "Money to Burn," "If the Rain's Got to Fall," "Flash, Bang, Wallop," and "The Party's On the House."

Cris McLaughlin will sing and dance the role of Mr. Martinez's loyal, humble sweetheart, Sue Stanley the girl from polite society he gets engaged to, Allen Morford, Chris Helton and Dennis Mansfield his jolly fellow store clerks, Kathy Allen and Kevin Reynolds his snubbing near in-laws, and Robert Fitzgerald his oppressive boss.

"Half a Sixpence" was written by Beverley Cross, and its songs are by David Heneker, who had a hand in adapting "Irma La Douce" into English. Its production at Grayling High School is being directed by Howard Taylor and its settings evoking the quaint and colorful styles of Edwardian England, have been designed by John Watkins.

Worried about having to choose a long-distance company?

There's lots of confusion these days over how, when, and why you must choose a long-distance company to handle your "one-plus" calls.

(Actually, many people have already chosen the long-distance company they want to use. And, of course, you may sign-up with companies serving your area anytime you wish.)

The confusion is coming from all the ads telling you that if you don't choose, someone else will do it for you. They're talking about the new service called "equal access." With equal access, you must choose the company you want to handle your direct dialed calls.

But don't panic. You don't have to do anything until you hear from us. Since we are the ones to make equal access available in your area, you can bet that nothing will happen until we've notified you.

(Some areas may never see equal access. That's because long-distance companies may choose not to offer the service in all locations.)

If your town is one of the ones to get the new service, we will send you all the information you need to make a decision...

We'll send you a package explaining the how, when, and why of equal access. It will tell you exactly what you must do. And when you must do it. In fact, it will even include a ballot to make it easier for you to notify us of your choice.

But, until then, you don't have to do a thing.

So sit back, relax. Your long distance service will be the same tomorrow as it is today.

Name Coordinator for New College Program at Kirtland

Kirtland Community College is pleased to announce the hiring of John Loiacano to coordinate a new college program that will shorten the step from high school to a full-time job.

Loiacano, a Central Michigan University graduate and long time community resident, comes to Kirtland with over ten years of employment and training experience in and around the area.

The new program, "Contracting with Business and Industry" (CWB&I), is designed for those jobs not filled because skilled and semi-skilled applicants are not available. CWB&I is a one-year certificate program for specialized career training. Students enrolled in CWB&I have the opportunity to assess career goals while gaining marketable skills in non-traditional areas.

CWB&I utilizes the local business and industrial complex of the community as a training laboratory providing the student with two semesters, twelve hours a week of "hands-on" experience. Students enroll concurrently in on-campus related classes that support their occupational objectives. The academic and occupational components combine to better prepare students for entry level employment.

The CWB&I program has been highly successful in a number of Michigan communities and is a nationally recognized program, receiving awards from the National Association of Industry Education Cooperation, and the American Association of Community and Junior Colleges.

So far, Loiacano has been making contacts and developing sites for the program. The reception has been very enthusiastic with some promising work sites already committed and a high level of interest from many others.

For additional information, employers and students should contact John Loiacano, Contracting with Business and Industry Coordinator at Kirtland at 517-275-5121 (or write KCC, 10775 N. St. Helen Road, Roscommon, MI 48653).

Resource Review

By Bruce Patrick
Conservation Officer

Ever since someone first dumped smelt into Higgins Lake and a self-sustaining population has developed, questions have arisen as to why it is not legal to dip them on their spring spawning runs.

The Sportfishing Law, Act 165, P.A. 1929, as amended, empowers the Director of the Department of Natural Resources to designate waters where smelt and certain rough fish may be taken by hand net. This order opens portions of 10 streams in 7 counties statewide.

As of yet, tributaries of Higgins Lake have not been included. The main reason for this omission, is that these tributaries run through private property. They are not navigable, therefore the landowners have strict control over their use.

If these streams were to be opened for smelt dipping, each person who entered private property to do so would have to have written permission from each property owner over whose land he travelled or be guilty of trespass.

I am sure you can see the problems which would be encountered. I am just as sure that if you were a landowner, you wouldn't care to have a hoard of smelt dippers in your back yard. Another reason is that every tributary to Higgins Lake is a designated trout stream and open to fishing only during the regular trout season.

Perhaps these problems can be solved in the future. At present however, it is unlawful to dip smelt in Higgins lake and its tributaries.

The Yellowing of Fabrics

by Gail Edwards
Extension Home Economist

The yellowing of fabrics is one of the most common laundering problems. Yellowing is usually caused by one of two things: A build-up of body soil or the incomplete removal of detergent residue.

Body soil can build up when:

- Insufficient detergent is used in the wash.
- You wash your clothes in water that's too cool.

You mistakenly treat synthetics as "delicate" and wash them in short, gentle and cool washes.

You hand wash synthetics in a light duty detergent.

To correct the problem:

- Increase the amount of detergent and/or use a product containing enzymes, detergent booster or bleach.
- Increase the water temperature. Wash items in the hottest water safe for the fabric. The hot water setting on the washer is the temperature of the house hot water supply when it reaches the washer. Ideally, the hot water should be 130 degrees F or above at the washer.

• Wash synthetics in hot water (at least 130° F). Use a permanent press cycle with a cool-down time that lowers the water temperature before the first spin. Be sure to increase the amount of detergent and/or use a detergent booster and bleach.

• If your synthetic is extremely discolored and cannot be bleached, soak it in a product containing enzymes or a detergent booster. You can also treat your synthetics with a color remover by following package directions and washing afterwards.

To prevent yellowing from occurring:

• Use sufficient detergent in every wash.

• Wash items in the hottest water that is safe for the fabric.

• Launder synthetics frequently in a washer for a short period with water at least 100° F and with a laundry detergent.

GHS Advanced Studies

By Linda Denton

Juniors Colette Petrosky and Jennifer Ojala, Advanced Studies students at Grayling High School, spent much time at the Crawford County Courthouse last year. They observed actual court cases and interviewed judges and lawyers in order to learn more about the criminal justice system.

Colette and Jennifer decided they would like to teach what they had learned to the rest of the Advanced Studies Class. So they set up a court simulation based on the fairy tale, "Little Red Riding Hood." The class chose a prosecuting attorney, a defense attorney, witnesses, the defendant, and the jury.

The trial was then acted out and filmed. Colette and Jennifer believe that the simulation was a bit hit.

Herbal corner

Can you believe this weather? Everything is coming up so fast, I am hard bent on keeping up with the plants.

While discussing the weather, plants, etc., with a fellow artisan I was told that to get rid of our moles all I had to do was to roll up a stick of unwrapped Juicy Fruit gum and shove it down the hole. All I could do was look at the person and say, "Sure, darlin, and tell me another," then I giggled.

In discussing this little humorous tidbit with others I learned still more. The wife of a man who has his own pest control business has done this for moles for years. It seems the gum ruins their digestive system, and the moles die. A couple of leading garden magazines have stated this same fact and that it does, indeed, work.

I can just see my mother out with her gloves (human hands cannot touch the gum) and Juicy Fruit gum; and while shoving the rolled up little morsels down the holes saying, "Okay, you little vermins, this will show you who is boss and who can destroy my beds."

My mother be a wee one, but wiry and prone to stubbornness.

Here is another little piece of information: "Nasturtium repels a wide range of harmful insects from vegetables and fruits, planted nearby or made into a spray. It also improves growth and flavor in the neighbor crops." This explains why some of the old-fashioned gardens of a hundred years or more ago had an array of flowers in their gardens, with nasturtiums and marigolds being but two of them.

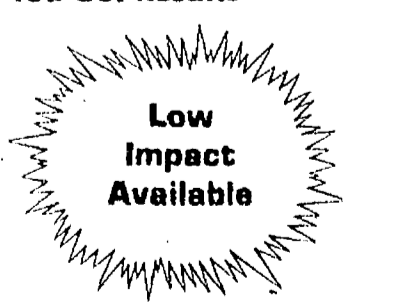

If you planted your cold weather seeds last fall, you should see some of the seedlings right about now.

Herbally yours,
E. Diona Cerelli, C.H.

Middle Age

"Middle Age?" It's an elusive age which no one admits reaching, denies when accused of being there, and resents insinuations as having passed it.

Dante fixed "the middle year of life at about 35." That squares with the Biblical "three-score and ten" if you divide it equally.

But Middle Age is not determined by calendar-year or birthday, but by the position of life. It is not a year but an era.

It is that time (position) of life when you are attending funerals of your mentors, saying farewell to your children, and welcoming grandchildren. And it happens at different ages for various people.

Your parents and other significant mentors have either died or retired. And suddenly you discover the legacy of leadership and heritage of tradition are in your hands. You turn to look up, as in days past, only to find that family and the lesser-aged are looking up to you!

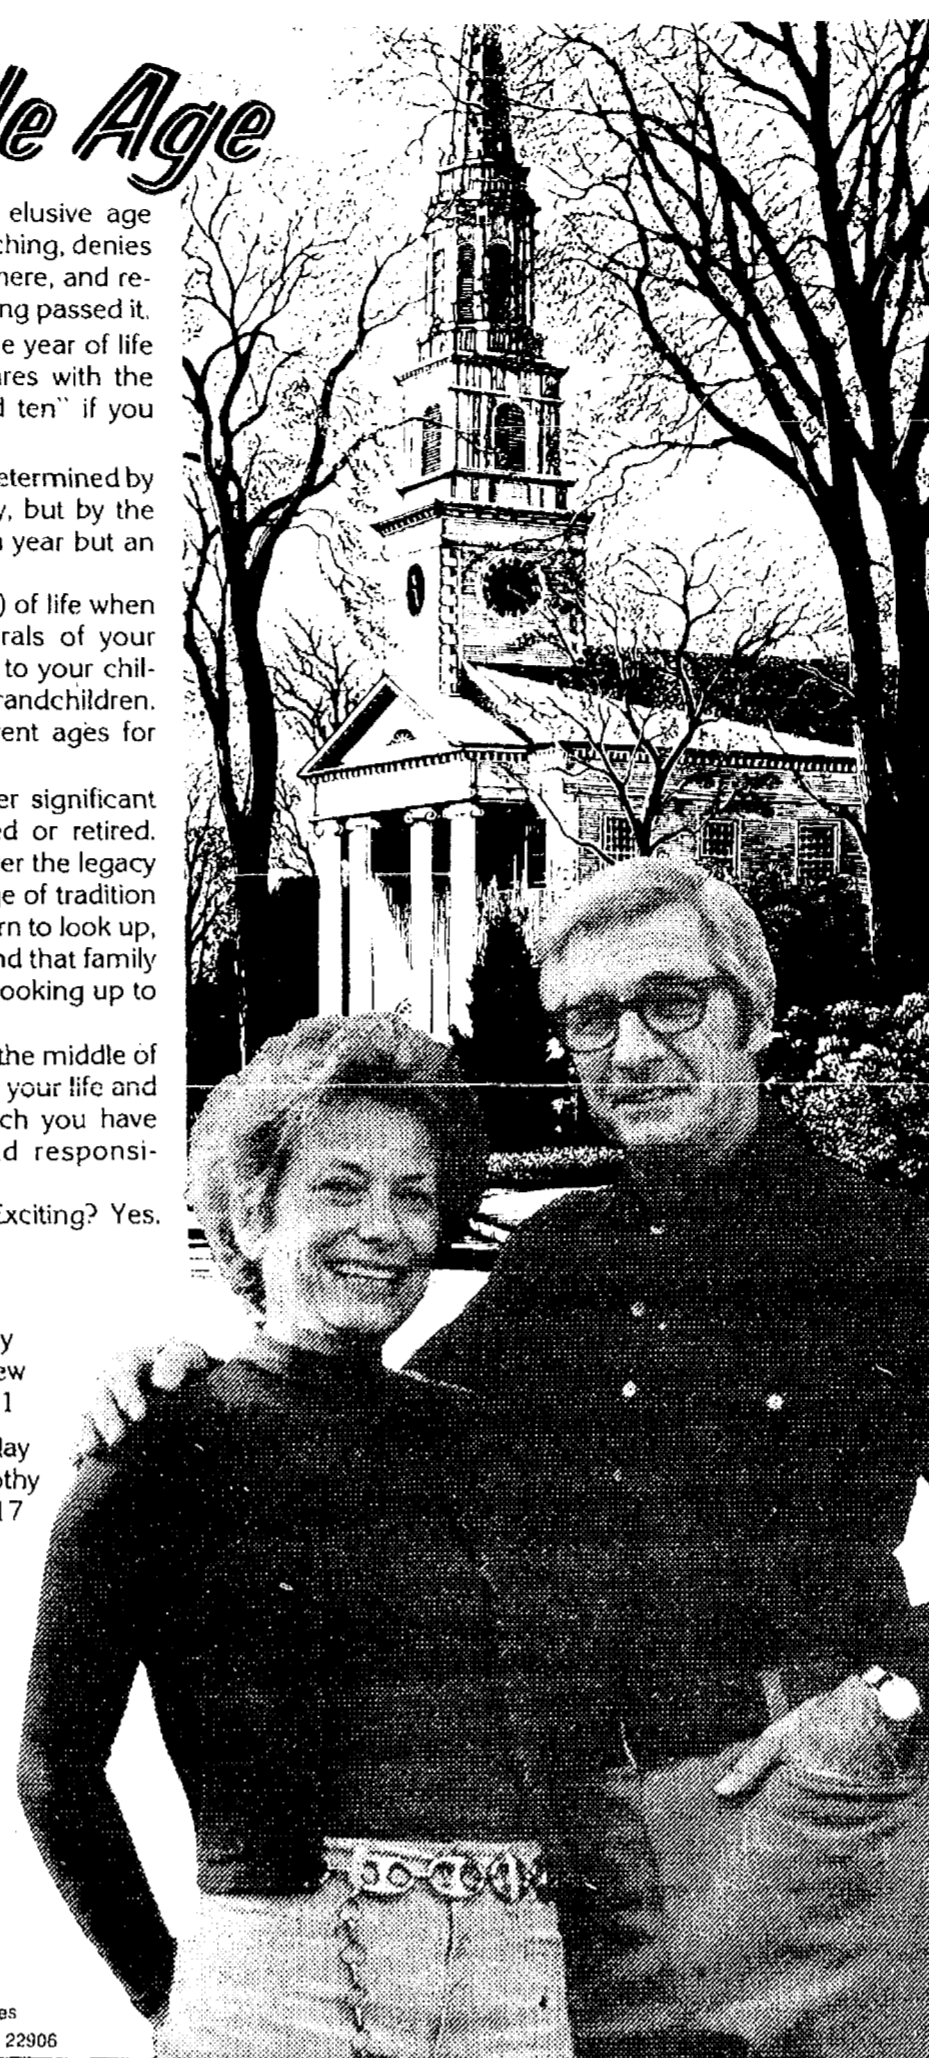

Middle age is being in the middle of whatever is happening in your life and the little world over which you have certain obligations and responsibilities.

Scary? Sometimes. Exciting? Yes. Inevitable? You bet!

Radiothon For Young Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Thompson are seeking help for their 5½ year old granddaughter, Amanda Thompson, who has a severe liver disease.

WJGS of Houghton Lake will be having a Radiothon on Wednesday, April 16, from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. to help raise money for a liver saving operation for Amanda.

William J. Byrne, M.D., a hospital director of C.S. Mott Children's Hospital in Ann Arbor said Amanda was born with a problem which interfered with the normal secretion of bile from the liver into the gastrointestinal tract. As a consequence she has had ongoing liver damage and now suffers from liver cirrhosis. Complicating the liver cirrhosis have been problems with fluid in the abdomen (ascites) and also gastrointestinal bleeding. Amanda has been referred to the University of Pittsburgh for a liver transplant.

A trust has been set up in Amanda's name to help pay for her operation. Checks may be made out to: Amanda Thompson, Account No. 3746806; and mailed in care of her grandparents, Bill and Sue Thompson, 104 Norway Drive, Prudenville, MI 48851.

Another fund raising event for Amanda will be a Pancake Supper on Monday, April 28, from 5:00 - 8:00 p.m. at the Family Restaurant in Houghton Lake. Cannisters for donations have also been placed throughout the Prudenville/Houghton Lake area.

Par For The Course

With the beautiful weather that we have been having this past weekend, it looked like the course was fairly busy. Don't forget the Opening Happy Hour on Friday, April 18! Come meet the new manager, Mike Hoffman and his family.

National Award Winner in Science

The United States Achievement Academy announced that Deena Marie Ventline has been named a United States National Award winner in Science.

This award is a prestigious honor very few students can ever hope to attain. In fact, the Academy recognizes less than 10% of all American high school students.

Deena Ventline, who attends Reese High School was nominated for this National Award by Mrs. Betty Wiseman, a Physics teacher at the school. Deena will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published nationally.

Winners are selected upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the Standards of Selection set forth by the Academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability, and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Deena is the daughter of Edward & Janie Ventline of Grayling. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ventline of Port Austin, MI. and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cubitt of Bad Axe, MI.

Deena was also chosen and published in the Who's Who among American high school students 1984-1985 edition.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Canfield wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Miranda, of St. Louis to Gregory Ludy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Ludy of St. Louis. A June wedding is planned.

Reunion Held

A family reunion was held on Monday, March 21, 1986 for the family of Betty Merrill, formerly of Grayling, at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Traylor Jr., in Palmyra, Tenn.

Attending the reunion were her seven children, Jo Ann Grutze of Traverse City, Judy Waite of Gaylord, Jackie D'Amour of Grayling, Thomas Traylor of Palmyra, Tenn., Martha Jerkins of Oak Grove, Arkansas, Vincent Merrill of Western Grove, Arkansas, and Theresa Eagles also of Western Grove, Ark.

Grandchildren were Patty Trudgeon, Cheryl Mott, and Jackie Yoder, all of Grayling, Chip Waite of Gaylord, Yvonne and Arthur Grutze of Traverse City, Michael Traylor of Palmyra, Tenn., Robin, Jesse, Sarsh, and Jared Jerkins of Oak Grove, Ark., and Eva Ruth Eagles of Western Grove, Ark.

Great grandchildren were Darci Trudgeon, Gary Mott, and Michael D'Amour all of Grayling.

Also attending were Steve Eagles, son-in-law, and close friends Dan, Lee, and Cheri Labelle of Edmonton, Ky., Betty Merrill was presented with a quilt made with squares made by each family member, plus some who were unable to attend. It was sewn together by Nancy Traylor and presented to our Mom on the day of the reunion. The opposite side of the quilt shows the pattern called the "Faithful Circle" which best describes our family.

Same Size

The brain size of Neanderthal man, about 125,000 years ago, was basically the same as that of modern man, says National Geographic.

UpNorth ...

by Michael Delp

After too many years of working with the language, I worry when I read newspaper accounts about environmental hazards that read "should not result in any significant deterioration to the natural or social environment of the region." Certainly, there is a universe which exists between the words should not and will not. The figures of maximum emission projected for the G-P Plant alone are cause for concern if looked at from a broader view.

Given, the emission rates are maximum projections but who could be concerned over .014 lbs./hr? Using the electronic brain of a $6.95 Mac's Drugs Calculator the emission rates work out this way. Collectively, at maximum emission rate, the new G-P Plant will be dumping 4.519 lbs/hr. Still not significant, you say? Well, in a 24-hour day that works out to 108.456 lbs and in a year that's 39,586.44 lbs or little over 19 tons.

So where does all that stuff go? It goes up. Then it comes down. In rain, in dust, in the air, in your lungs, your water, in the ground. Will all those emissions be incinerated? What does formaldehyde do to your skin, to your lungs? What about a leak in a 25,000 gallon formaldehyde tank, or some wing-nut attacking a 5,000 gallon urea silo with his .22?

Of course, the tourist possibilities are endless. We have made a good deal of money in this area by catering to the forces which annually pulverize good ground into shrapnel fields and now we can turn our pocketbooks somewhere else. Chamber Chatter: gas mask key chains, "I survived 39 tons of emission chemicals in 1987" T-shirts, "Gas Mask Regatta". And "slimicide" — put it in cans and sell it to the kids.

WE'RE HURTING.

Saving lives can be very expensive. The costs of our disaster relief and other humanitarian programs keep mounting. And we can't afford to come up short.

Please help.

Bruce and Corrine Smith returned last Monday from Ft. Walton Beach, Florida, where they had spent the winter months. They visited their daughter and family, Kim and Doug Randall, Kerry and Bruce, in Washington, Georgia, for a week enroute home. Last Saturday, April 12, the Smiths were in Mancelona with the rest of Bruce's family to help his mother, Mrs. Alma Smith, celebrate her 85th birthday. For those of you who played basketball under Coach Smith, she will be remembered as the lady who fixed all those delicious chicken dinners for the team.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolcott, Chris and Jeff, spent their Easter vacation in Gulf Shores, Alabama. They stayed overnight in Detroit with his mother, Mrs. Mary Wolcott.

Michael Fleming spent a couple days of his Easter vacation with his aunt and uncle, Ron and Linda McLeod, and their children, in Saginaw. Mrs. Gerd Kelly is spending some time in Louisville, Kentucky, visiting her aunt and uncle, Dorothy and Henry Nilsen. The William Flemings of Leland were Easter weekend guests of the Mike Fleming family.

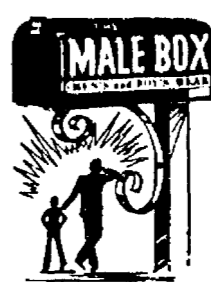

Chuck and Pam Spencer, Mike and Matt, spent their school holiday at Gulf Shores, Alabama, enjoyed the beach and water and warm weather. They visited Pam's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brown in Fairhope, Alabama.

Larry and Gloria Frymire have returned to their Lake Margrethe home after spending three and one-half months in Mesa, Arizona, and another six weeks in Chicago.

Bill and Ruth Burrows Moore are now permanent residents of Grayling. They built a home at Lake Margrethe and moved here last August and spent the winter here. Welcome back to Grayling!

Vern Gardiner and Mike Gardiner spent the Easter holidays in Charlotte, North Carolina, visiting Lee and Mary Langolf and daughter, Jessica Evelyn. Just ask Vern how wonderful that granddaughter is! Leona and Margaret Gardiner of Lansing, who had been in Florida for the winter, met Vern and Mike in Charlotte, and returned to Michigan together.

TICKETS FOR THE MICHIGAN LOTTERY'S NEW WEEKLY GAME, SUPER LOTTO, WENT ON SALE APRIL 14 AT $1 EACH. RECENT QUESTIONS FROM COLUMN READERS ON THE NEW GAME INCLUDE:

Q: What is the difference between the regular and Super Lotto games?
A: Regular Lotto asks players to match four, five or six numbers from a field of 40. Super Lotto will ask players to make the same matches from a field of 44. This means longer odds and larger prizes for Super Lotto players.

Q: Is Super Lotto being offered in place of regular Lotto?
A: No. Super Lotto will be a companion to, not replacement for, regular Lotto. Both will be weekly games. Regular 6 of 40 Lotto drawings will be on Wednesdays, while 6 of 44 Super Lotto drawings will be on Saturdays.

Q: What's the minimum Jackpot for Super Lotto?
A: The 6 of 40 Lotto currently has a minimum Jackpot of $1 million. The first Super Lotto Jackpot was guaranteed at $2 million. From then on, the amount of play will determine the Jackpot amount.

Q: If Super Lotto creates larger Jackpots, isn't it better that 20 people each win $1 million than if one person won a $20 million Jackpot?
A: No matter the Jackpot size, there may be more than one winner. The average 6 of 40 Jackpot share has been about $1.7 million.

Q: Since Super Lotto will create longer odds, wouldn't it make sense to give prizes for matching three numbers?
A: Awarding prizes for matching three numbers would decrease the amount of money available for the Jackpot, defeating the game's most popular feature. Both players and the State School Aid Fund would be shortchanged.

Q: How will the new Lotto game affect my current Lotto subscription?
A: No subscription play will be offered for Super Lotto. Current 6 of 40 Lotto subscriptions are now extended to cover the full number of drawings purchased but on a weekly basis. Subscriber mailings enable players to figure new expiration dates.

For use of their Super Lotto questions, 50 "Winds of Fortune" instant game tickets were sent to Marie Burchard of Eastlake, Dorothy E. Carter of Birmingham, Elaine Cleveland of Lansing, Sandra G. Hodge of South Lyon, Sue Lockwood of Gaylord and Marlene Silbert of Grosse Pointe. If you have a Lottery question you'd like answered in this column, send it to: "Winners Circle," Michigan Lottery, P.O. Box 30077, Lansing, MI 48909

SPORTS FANS!

I Bet You Didn't Know

Brought To You By John Scheer

Who was the biggest long shot ever to win the Kentucky Derby? ...Answer is Donerail who won the 1913 Derby...The odds on Donerail were 92 to 1!

Here's a tricky sports puzzle... See if you can name the three sports in which the winners cross the finish line GOING BACKWARDS...Not many people can name all three...Here are the answers...Rowing, tug-of-war and backstroke swimming.

Here's an interesting sports oddity...There are 5 men who played major league baseball - and then wound up in pro football's Hall of Fame...They are Jim Thorpe, who was both a big league baseball outfielder and one of the great runners in pro football...George Halas, who played rightfield for the Yankees...Ace Parker, who played shortstop in the majors and was a star quarterback in the National Football League...Greasy Neale, a big league outfielder who later became a successful NFL coach... And Ernie Nevers, a major league pitcher who later set the NFL record for most touchdowns in a game.

I bet you didn't know...We are the largest Used Car Dealer in northern Michigan, offering a Used Car 48 hour locator service and on the spot finance experts.

Compete in Miss T.E.E.N. Pageant

Miss Amy K. Smith, daughter of Shirley and Norman Schmoock of Grayling and David and Linda Smith of Charlotte, has been selected to compete in the 1986 Miss T.E.E.N. Pageant to be held in Kalamazoo in July. Contestants have been chosen for a variety of reasons and will be judged individually in personal interviews, a talent presentation, and an evening gown competition.

The T.E.E.N. acronym stands for Teens Encouraging Excellence Nationally, and the pageant judges seek teens whose personal expression and achievements are above the norm. Amy will meet girls from all over the State of Michigan to compete for scholarship funds. Amy will sing a number from her growing repertoire, and helping her to prepare for the talent portion of the pageant are Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ralph, her music instructors. Amy is also very grateful to Mrs. Nancy Lemmen, her forensics and drama coach, as the speech portion of the pageant is an extremely important part of the contest. Other sponsors making this trip and experience possible are the Holiday Inn, Hertha's Gift Shop, Mac's Drugs, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Miles, Rainbow Fitness, Grey Goose Gifts, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schwartz, and the Crawford County Arts Council, a group devoted to artistic and cultural excellence.

Amy's primary goal in life is to develop and meet the potential of her vocal, dramatic and intellectual talents. It is her belief that dreams are a necessary part of a person's foundation, and that dreams inspire the individual to rise to great heights. Meeting the challenge of being the best that you can be, Amy feels, is what life and living are all about.

Hospital News

Those admitted to Mercy Hospital during the past week were: Jennie Noel of Houghton Lake, Harold Lake of Roscommon, and Effie Breecher of Grayling.

Those discharged were: Martha Gauthier of Grayling, and James McIlrath of Houghton Lake.

James & Renee Sheldon of Grayling announce the birth of Kenneth Michael on April 5, 1986, weighing 6 lbs. 2 1/2 ozs.

Joe & Becky Bordeaux of Frederic announce the birth of James Michael on April 7, 1986, weighing 6 lbs. 15 1/2 ozs.

Rod & Michelle Duncley of Frederic have a new daughter, Sara Elizabeth, born April 6, 1986, weighing 7 lbs. 7 1/2 ozs.

Daniel & Patricia Hanson of Grayling, announce Molly Patricia born April 10, 1986, weighing 8 lbs. 3 1/2 ozs.

Although there are 20 players on this year's team, only 1 player is a senior and four are juniors. Thirteen are sophomores and two are freshmen.

Of the eight returning lettermen, John Meagher, Jeff Palmer, George Duncan, Joe Erb, Flaskie Robins, David Somerville, Jim Knight, and John Kinnee, only Meagher, Palmer, and Duncan got a lot of playing time last year.

Fred Wolcott, in his sixth year as GHS baseball coach, said his young team is enthusiastic and eager to start the season. He points to pitching as the key to a good year.

"If we play good defense, not walk a lot of batters, and get them out, we'll win our share."

In memorium

Thoughts about Daddy, Edward N. Walker.

You've been gone for 2 long years; so long, but so short. Short because the pain seems like yesterday, not being able to talk to you seems like forever. At times we wish we could ask you what to do. In our hearts we would know what you would say. With your love you would tell us, "Each of you must gain earthly possessions by hard work and being honest, not by toil of others." May you have peace and rest with your love already waiting in heaven for you.

Miss you a lot Daddy. Your 5 children left to wait.

Walk America Here May 4

It's the biggest "athon" of them all, and it's happening all across the country this spring. It's the annual March of Dimes Walk-America, a fundraising event in which more than a million Americans will put on their walking shoes to raise money to fight birth defects.

This year citizens of Grayling can join the nation in WalkAmerica by turning out at Hanson Hills Recreation Park on Sunday, May 4 to make the annual trek.

Birth defects are this country's number one child health problem, striking 250,000 babies every year. Money collected from Walk pledges will assist the March of Dimes programs of research, medical services and education. All donations to the March of Dimes are tax deductible.

Sponsor sheets are available in the following local businesses who are participating in this year's event: Mercy Hospital, K mart, Big Boy Restaurant, Wurtsmith Credit Union, Glen's Market, Ben Franklin, Cornell Real Estate and Insurance, Pizza Hut, Van's Building Center, A & P Store, Great Lakes Federal Savings, and the Holiday Inn.

For more information, contact WalkAmerica chairman Bruce McGuire at 348-5884 or 348-5889, or Mary Jo Conway at Mercy Hospital, 348-5461, extension 368.

Plans Grow for Railroad Depot Museum Site

The interior of the main depot floor has been almost completely restored now. It looks marvelous. The only interior work that remains is the installation of working restroom facilities. Bob Ruddy of the Historical Society has been spending about 50 hours a week preparing display cases and inventorying artifacts and gathering new artifacts in preparation for the opening of the new museum sometime in mid May.

The caboose purchased from the Detroit and Mackinac Railroad left Tawas City last week enroute to its new home beside the Grayling Depot.

It has to spend a few days in Bay City where railroad personnel will give the car a final inspection before sending it on. The Crawford County Road Commission has been hauling in gravel so that the caboose will have a sound foundation to sit on and Bob Ruddy will soon be looking for volunteers to help lay 40 feet of ties and track.

An organizational meeting of a committee to nominate canoe racers for induction into the Canoe Racing Hall of Fame is currently being set. The first induction will probably take place this summer during the Milltown Festival on the day of the Budweiser AuSable River Marathon. Plans are also underway, pending funding, to move the old Historical Museum next to the depot to house the Hall of Fame.

The Grayling City Fire Department has expressed an interest in constructing, pending funding, a small building to house an array of historical Grayling Fire Fighting Equipment, including the old 1936 Fire Truck on the same railroad site. If this project becomes a reality Grayling will have a complex of interest for everyone to enjoy and certainly unrivaled anywhere in northern Michigan.

$4000 in Cash, Prizes Offered At 'Grand Event'

On Tuesday, May 20, the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce will be awarding $4,000.00 in prize money to several lucky people. The first prize is $3,000.00 in cash. Ten other prizes of $100.00 each will also be awarded.

The event will take place at the Grayling Red Barn between 6:30 and 8:30 p.m. with the grand prize being awarded at 7:30. The winning number will be the Michigan Daily Lottery number (straight) as it appears on TV, therefore ticket sales are limited to 1,000. Although you need not be present to win the prizes everyone is invited to the party. There will be a $4.00 cover charge for Hors D'Oeuvres.

Tickets are $10.00 each and are now on sale at the Chamber office in the City Park, or write for one at P.O. Box 406, Grayling.

A fun evening is guaranteed for everyone so please join us.

High School Honor Will Help Build 'Quality of Life' Here

By Terry Wright

In our ongoing quest for "Quality of Life" we at the Chamber must be involved in every corner of the community. Tourism, Industry, Military Affairs, Education, Health Care, Recreation and Senior Citizen Affairs are just a few of our many concerns. Occasionally something will happen to one of our concerns which will temporarily bring it to the focus of our attention. Hopefully this happening will be good but too often it is not and the chamber must immediately jump into the middle of a very ticklish and unpopular situation.

Recently something happened in our area that has a very definite affect on all of us. It should be in the focus of the community eye. This time it is something good and we need to congratulate those who are responsible for its happening.

I am speaking of course about the recent honor bestowed on our high school by the State Department of Education. Grayling High School has been chosen as an exemplary high school. This is an honor which is shared by a very few schools in the entire state so it plays a significant role in building "Quality of Life" in our area. The local school system is one of the most important factor in considering a move to a new city for all of us. Therefore, this honor on our high school will play a leading role in attracting new citizens, quality citizens who care about quality education and who are the building blocks of quality life. The naming of Grayling High School as a state exemplary school has made my job a little bit easier and since I will soon have high school aged children my mind is a little more at ease.

My personal thanks go out to the entire school system staff. I'll bet they wouldn't mind hearing from you either.

Summer Beautification Plans Underway

With spring here and summer just around the corner, the Beautification Committee needs your support to create a pleasant initial impression of our unique city.

It is our goal to plant 300 flats of Petunias from E-72 to W-72, including the front of City Hall, the County Courthouse and the new Historical Museum at the Depot. Flowers by Josie will once again supply the Petunias at their cost. The amount of funds needed this year will be approximately $1,600.00.

We expect delivery of the plants on May 22nd, and the completion of planting by May 24th. Bob Cole, committee chairperson will be calling on the chamber membership at large to obtain donations to help make this years planting the most successful ever.

Your sincere support by giving will continue to enhance the beauty of our city.

National Guard Camps

Camp Grayling's Summer Troops for 1986 include:

May 3-17 — Grayling's own unit - 370 enlisted men

May 17-31 — Louisiana National Guard - 55 enlisted men

May 31-June 14 — Minnesota National Guard - 687 enlisted men

June 14-28 — Ohio National Guard - 6,688 enlisted men

June 28-July 12 — Ohio National Guard - 3,604 enlisted men

July 12-26 — Ohio National Guard - 2,678 enlisted men

July 26-August 9 — Ohio National Guard - 3,093 enlisted men

August 9-23 — Michigan National Guard - 8,117 enlisted men

Membership Elects New Board Members

In light ballot returns the chamber membership voted to retain Les Felder of K mart and Jill Wyman of The Icehouse on the 1986-87 board of directors. Also elected, replacing Dr. Paul Mesack of the Grayling Animal Hospital and Kathy Ashton of Spike's Keg O Nails who chose not to run for another term, were June Savoie of Delights and Attorney William Carey. We extend a warm welcome to June and Bill and look forward to working with them in the years of their service. Our thanks also go out to all the others who were on the ballot and were willing to serve if elected.

Joyce Kolka

Chamber Lady Extraordinaire

If you have ever called or stopped in to the chamber office building in the City Park you have undoubtedly experienced the pleasant helpful secretary/business manager that we are so lucky to have working for us. If you have been in Grayling for more than three days you have probably already met her, and once you meet her you won't forget her. She is Joyce Kolka and she has been the chief chamber greeter and source of knowledge for the past eight and one half years. She cares about Grayling and your business and it shows in everything that she does.

Joyce and her husband Jim have lived in Grayling almost forever. They raised three children here. Lynn, Nancy and Kurt and are now enjoying their three grandchildren Heather, Annette and Travis.

There is not a worthwhile project that has happened in Grayling in the last eight years that Joyce hasn't been involved with. She is dedicated to making and keeping Grayling a great place to live. We others at the chamber would like to thank her for making our jobs easier and much more pleasant and we would like to wish her a Happy Birthday on April 9th. She deserves a hand from the entire community.

Chief Shoppenagons Motor Hotel

No story of Grayling could ever be complete without detailing the history of the Chief Shoppenagons Motor Hotel. Its unique namesake and history have played an important role in the development of Grayling since 1872.

The original building was constructed by Mike Hartwick in 1872 but before its completion it was demolished by a tornado. After that three other buildings were constructed only to be destroyed by fire three different times. The last building stood on the lot, burned out and fenced in until well after the turn of the century.

In the early teens Rasmus Hanson and Nels Michelson spearheaded the construction of a new hotel on the site to be called the Hartwick Hotel. When the new hotel opened in May of 1916 the name had been changed to the Chief Shoppenagon Hotel in honor of the Chippewaw Chief who was Grayling's leading native American citizen in the thirty years prior to his death in 1911. That name and that building remain today, despite three more fires. On its opening in 1916 the hotel was the pride of northern Michigan and rivaled in beauty and comfort many hotels in New York and Chicago.

Today the Chief Shoppenagon Motor Hotel features fine dining, dancing and lodging at reasonable prices and is the favorite meeting place of local service clubs such as the Rotary, the Kiwanis and the Grayling Promotional Association. Our city is lucky to have such a fine facility and we're looking forward to another 100 plus years of availability.
